

Tackling complex sports travel

Bespoke travel plans ensure peak performance for the rugby team.

Harlequins

Industry: Sport

Location: London, UK

Client Established: 2015

“Lisa and the team are real support for us; they are there every step of the way and understand the tight schedules, the inevitable last-minute nature of our travel and the challenge of travelling as a group. The team have changed the way I book travel for the better, positively challenging our buying patterns and having real experts on side has made a huge difference.”

Graeme Bowerbank, Head of Operations @ Harlequins Football Club Ltd

Background

- Successful English Rugby Union team who play and train across the UK.
- Unpredictable travel especially towards end of season when fixtures and plans change.

Situation

- Two weeks' notice for group of 80 to travel to Lyon when Harlequins win ECPR Challenge semi-final.
- Players need enough hotel space for in-room massages and dining for peak performance.

Solution

- Expert Travel Consultant Lisa sourced best hotel options and negotiated directly for best rate.
- Excess equipment transported without hassle.

Success

- Players in peak physical condition and have best chance at glory.
- Out of hours team was on hand in case there were any emergencies.
