

Customer Story

Avoiding travel pitfalls for a not-for-profit

Business travel goals often start with the simplest of checklists, especially when you're running a lean operation.

Global
Leadership
Foundation

Industry: Not-for-profit

Location: Switzerland

Client Established: 2012

“My experience with Corporate Traveller is excellent. Always very friendly and supportive, and consultants work as a team as well so nothing get lost.”

Peter Osborn, Operations Manager
@ Global Leadership Foundation

Background

- Global Leadership Foundation is a network of former Presidents, Prime Ministers and government officials.
- These leaders offer personal and confidential advice to current Heads of Government.

Solution

- These busy people need seamless itineraries with quick and reliable information.
- Ensure value for money on all travel plans to ensure lean operations.

Success

- Consultants have a solid understanding of GLF's business and requirements.
- Travellers are provided fast, reliable options and offer recommendations.

Situation

- Travellers kept informed, while sticking to budget.
- GLF avoid many pitfalls in an increasingly complex marketplace.

We can drive similar results for your business.
Schedule a meeting today.